* Effective Date: The date SELR accepts the surrender, unless the parties agree in writing to a different date.

2. ANIMAL IDENTIFICATION, HISTORY, AND DISCLOSURES

This Agreement covers only the animal(s) listed on the approved Surrender Log form. Any additional animals must be added in a written attachment signed by the parties. The Surrendering Party must disclose all known medical, behavioral, and relevant history for each animal on the Surrender Log form or an attached record.

3. VOLUNTARY AND IRREVOCABLE TRANSFER

The Surrendering Party knowingly and voluntarily transfers to SELR all ownership rights and interests in the animal(s), including title, possession, and custody, subject to the express terms of this Agreement.

Unless this Agreement states otherwise in writing, the surrender is not a sale, and SELR owes no purchase price or other payment.

On the Effective Date, the Surrendering Party gives up all rights to reclaim or control the animal(s), or to direct or veto SELR's decisions. SELR may accept or decline any surrender in its sole discretion.

4. OWNERSHIP, AUTHORITY, AND ENCUMBRANCES

The Surrendering Party represents and warrants, after reasonable inquiry and to the best of their knowledge, that:

• They are the lawful owner and have authority to transfer the animal(s) to SELR.

• All people or entities with an ownership, possession, breeding, registration, contractual, lien, security, or other legal interest have been disclosed and, unless SELR agrees otherwise in writing, have signed this Agreement.

• The animal(s) are not stolen or subject to any undisclosed ownership dispute, court order, seizure, forfeiture proceeding, lease, breeding contract, or transfer restriction.

• No lien or other encumbrance exists except as disclosed in writing.

• All available ownership, registration, microchip, and veterinary records have been provided or identified.

5. RECORDS AND AUTHORIZATION TO OBTAIN INFORMATION

The Surrendering Party will provide all available veterinary, registration, identification, breeding, ownership, laboratory, vaccination, treatment, and other records relating to the animal(s).

The Surrendering Party authorizes veterinarians, laboratories, registries, prior owners or caretakers, insurers, boarding facilities, and other lawful record custodians to give SELR records and information about the animal(s), including diagnostic images, test results, treatment and vaccination records, reproductive and registration records, microchip information, and disease or quarantine information.

SELR and its veterinarians, agents, foster caregivers, placement partners, and governmental animal-health authorities may rely on this authorization when reasonably necessary to carry out this Agreement or comply with the law.

6. SELR'S AUTHORITY AFTER TRANSFER

After the Effective Date, SELR may make decisions about the animal(s), subject to applicable law, including whether to:

• Provide, arrange, decline, or discontinue veterinary care or treatment;

• Quarantine, isolate, test, vaccinate, medicate, rehabilitate, transport, foster, or place an animal in permanent sanctuary;

• Geld an animal or otherwise manage reproduction;

• Determine whether and when an animal is ready for placement;

• Adopt, rehome, transfer, or place an animal with another rescue, nonprofit, facility, or caretaker; or

• Authorize humane euthanasia when legally appropriate and supported by SELR's and/or a veterinarian's judgment.

Unless this Agreement expressly states otherwise in writing, the Surrendering Party has no right to approve, direct, veto, or place conditions on these decisions.

7. OFFSPRING AND REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS

Unless the parties state otherwise in writing, SELR will own any offspring born to an animal after the Effective Date, even if conception occurred earlier, subject to applicable law.

8. TEMPORARY CUSTODY PENDING PHYSICAL TRANSFER

If an animal remains with the Surrendering Party after the Effective Date, ownership still transfers on that date unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.

Until physical transfer, the Surrendering Party must not sell, give away, breed, relocate, encumber, euthanize, or otherwise dispose of the animal, and must follow SELR's reasonable written instructions for care and transport.

9. RISK OF LOSS; TRANSPORT; INTERSTATE MOVEMENT

Unless the law requires otherwise or the parties agree in writing, risk of loss transfers to SELR when SELR or its authorized transporter takes physical possession of the animal.

This Agreement does not by itself authorize interstate transport. Before an animal is moved, the parties must meet all applicable federal and state requirements for animal health, identification, testing, quarantine, permits, Certificates of Veterinary Inspection, and transportation.

The parties will sign any additional health certificate, permit, affidavit, bill of sale, transfer or registration document, or other paperwork required by law.

10. RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Surrendering Party releases SELR and its directors, officers, employees, volunteers, agents, foster caregivers, veterinarians, transporters, and placement partners from claims arising solely from their lawful ownership, custody, care, transport, treatment, placement, transfer, or disposition of the animal(s) after the Effective Date.

The Surrendering Party will indemnify and hold those parties harmless from third-party claims, losses, costs, and reasonable expenses resulting from the Surrendering Party's breach of this Agreement, inaccurate ownership statements, undisclosed liens or ownership interests, or material failure to disclose known medical conditions or behavior.

Nothing in this Agreement waives or limits liability where applicable law does not allow it.

11. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW

This Agreement does not override any mandatory federal, state, or local laws governing animal welfare, veterinary practice, animal health, quarantine, disease reporting, livestock identification, transportation, ownership transfer, or disposition.

12. GOVERNING LAW, VENUE, AND JURISDICTION

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, without applying its conflict-of-law rules, to the extent permitted by law.

To the extent permitted by law, any legal action relating to this Agreement must be brought in a court with jurisdiction in Kentucky, and each party consents to that court's jurisdiction and venue.

13. ENTIRE AGREEMENT, AMENDMENT & SEVERABILITY

This Agreement and the Surrender Log form make up the entire agreement concerning the animal(s) and replace any earlier oral or written agreements on the same subject.

Any amendment or waiver must be in writing and signed by each party whose rights it affects. If a provision is found invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue in effect to the extent permitted by law.

14. ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES; COUNTERPARTS

The parties may sign electronically, by scanned signature, or in separate counterparts. To the extent permitted by law, each signature and copy has the same effect as an original.
